ANNUAL REPORT

JULY 1, 2017 – JUNE 30, 2018

WWW.DELAWAREVALLEYARTSALLIANCE.ORG

From the Executive Director

This year – the Delaware Valley Arts Alliance’s 42nd – was a pivotal one in the organization’s history. It marked the completion of one year since the passing of the baton from our founder and long-time director, Elaine Giguere, to a new generation of leadership.

This annual report serves as a testimonial to the the cumulative commitment of the DVAA’s staff, the Board of Directors, and the dedicated circle of volunteers and supporters, who have ensured that this organization is positioned to build its future on a solid foundation – one that is rooted in a commitment to strengthening our region’s cultural and economic landscape and elevating creative voices across all disciplines.

It has been a joyous process, getting to know the remarkable community of creative individuals who are not just passionate about the arts but about where we live and making it a sustainable, vibrant, and supportive community. It matters not only where we choose to make art but where we share our creativity.

With our reconfigured entrance, a project generously designed by DVAA Board Member Hans Küng and realized by members of Board’s Facility Committee, and shifts to online submissions for our grant applicants, exhibition artists, and Riverfest vendors, we are working to make sure DVAA is easily accesible and welcoming to all!

The year has included some incredible partnerships and collaborations. In June DVAA partnered with One Grand Books to help inaugurate the first annual Deep Water Literary Festival.

As the Arts Council for Sullivan County, the DVAA has continued its longstanding work to support artistic voices within our community and empower them to reach new audiences. In the coming year DVAA will be taking on an even more active role to strengthen Sullivan County through the arts. Stay tuned!

My thanks to DVAA’s Board of Directors, its staff, and our volunteers who bring not just their professionalism and passion to this organization but great joy and kindness.

Ariel Shanberg

BIG EDDY FILM FESTIVAL

Produced by DVAA, the Big Eddy Film Festival advances the traditional art of storytelling by showing the newest and best independent films from around the world and our own backyard. The 2017 festival screened two dozen new films (and one retrospective film) over three days, with an emphasis on the connection between audience members and the creative people behind the films we showed.

The festival hosted filmmakers from California, Pennsylvania, and New York City, who led Q&As after their film screenings. We felt this was our most successful year yet, with two sold-out screenings, seamless tech, and effective social media outreach.

Friday, September 15, 2017 – Opening Night Film “The Boy Downstairs”

Saturday, September 16, 2017 – Screenings of documentaries, two shorts programs, talk backs, and features all day, plus a “Meet the Filmmakers” cocktail party.

GRANTS & SCHOLARSHIPS

Arts for Sullivan New York State Re grants

With funding derived from the NYS Council on the Arts, DVAA has administered "Arts for Sullivan" for 34 years. The grant program assists cultural organizations, and sometimes individual artists, to bring arts projects and cultural programs to fruition. Beyond assisting 19 groups with their cultural offerings and projects, DVAA awarded an individual artist in the community grant to William Conway (Mongaup Valley, NY) for the project "Runnign with the Muse",

Sullivan County Arts & Heritage Grants

KEY SUPPORTERS

Council on the Arts

New York State Council on the Arts, a State Agency

DVAA's programs and operations receive funding from the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.

Sullivan County

DVAA is the Arts Council for Sullivan County and as such receives public funds from the Sullivan County Legislature for operations and re-granting through the Sullivan County Arts & Heritage Program.

The Delaware Valley Arts Alliance's primary programs and administrative activities are divided between locations, both in the Town of Narrowsburg, NY.

The Elaine Giguere Arts Center, located at 37 Main Street, was built in 1904 as the Arlington Hotel. The building is on the National Register of Historic Places. Today it hosts the DVAA's administrative offices, the Alliance and Loft Galleries, Krause Recital Hall, Signature Gifts, and two rental units which house Mildred's Lane Complex(ity) and a private business. The third and fourth floors of the structure are currently used for storage. The DVAA holds a mortgage on the property.

Capital improvements in FY18 included the renovation of Signature Gifts, the installation of Split-Duct Heating/Cooling Systems in the Loft Gallery and Krause Recital Hall, and the creation of a welcome desk in our main lobby. These projects were made possible through targeted fundraising campaigns, in-kind contributions by DVAA's board of directors and reserve funds.

DVAA's performing arts offerings and the Big Eddy Film Festival are presented at the Tusten Theatre which is on a cycling six-year lease arrangement from the Town of Tusten. The structure is located at 210 Bridge Street, Narrowsburg. In addition to DVAA's programs, the space is rented to arts organizations including the Delaware Valley Opera and Act Underground, for limited run productions.
