

Conservation Security Worker

 New York State Department of Environmental Conservation, Phoenicia NY

Overview: The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation is seeking a Conservation Security Worker in Phoenicia, NY.

Typical duties: campground security foot and vehicle patrols throughout campground, enforcing site rules and quiet hours, providing campers with facility information

Requirements:

Must have valid driver license and criminal justice/law enforcement experience or one year in a recreational facility

Reliability

Strong Customer Service skills

Ability to take direction from a supervisor

Communication skills

Shift and salary: This is a full time, temporary position with working primarily 2nd shift on Wednesday through Sundays. Salary is $18.54 per hour.

Apply: Contact Cindy Yaekel via email at cindy.yaekel@dec.ny.gov or via telephone at 845-256-3079