OLD BUSINESS:

- Fran stated the web page was updated.
- Donna gave a report on upgrading and maintaining the web page.
- Hank made a motion for a new page to be created and maintained current price quote was $350 per year. 2nd by Patrick.. Motion voted on carried 6/3.. Jim Cole will check on pricing from the company he uses, possibly could be done for less. Issue was tabled till next month. * facebook would not be used.
- Johnny Hotshot will not be at the JAKE event. The NRA is not able to sanction the event. It is a 7 page application and then there is no guarantee.
- Flying High birds of Prey will be attending and putting on a show
- Contract-county grant has been mailed to the county
- June 11 trip to Albany for the SAFE Act
- Banquet comp dinners were not reported correctly on the banquet report. They should have been listed as an expense.

NEW BUSINESS:

- June 6th Re-election rally for Sheriff Schiff 530p-730p at Mr G's in Liberty. $25 per person
- The man who won the bow at the Travis Archery/WW Shoot, donated it back to be given to a WW
- A Sportsmen's wing will be set up at the SC Historical Society Museum
- We now have 2yrs worth of pine for the bird houses at the JAKE events
- Jim asked for the guns (raffle) to go to a multiple gun club event to sell raffle tickets. Hank stated he could not permit that, the guns were signed out to him and they always had to be in his possession. There was a discussion as to whether this was the correct way to handle the raffle.
- Group discussion on the SAFE Act and members interpretation
- Hank stated he took a ½ page ad in the Soap Box Derby book for the JAKE event, no cost given

Motion to adjourn @ 915p, 2nd and carried
